Mother and Son

Level II

"Mummy, look at this!" shouted four-year-old Ravi, and ran into the house. Mother looked; there was a black caterpillar on his arm!

"Ugh!" said Mother to herself. But she said to Ravi, "Why don't you take the caterpillar back outside? His mother will be looking for him."

"Yes, Mummy," said Ravi and he went out. Mother was pleased. She had been clever! She had made him take the caterpillar outside.

A few minutes later, Ravi came back with two caterpillars. "Look, Mummy," he said, "I found the mother!"

A Long Neck

25

Level II

Why is the giraffe's neck so long?

Some people say, "To help the animal eat the leaves on tall trees.

Deer cannot reach those leaves.

No other animal can reach those leaves.

The giraffe, with its long neck, has a good time.

It gets a lot of food."

Others say, "No. The giraffe's neck is long because its legs are so long!

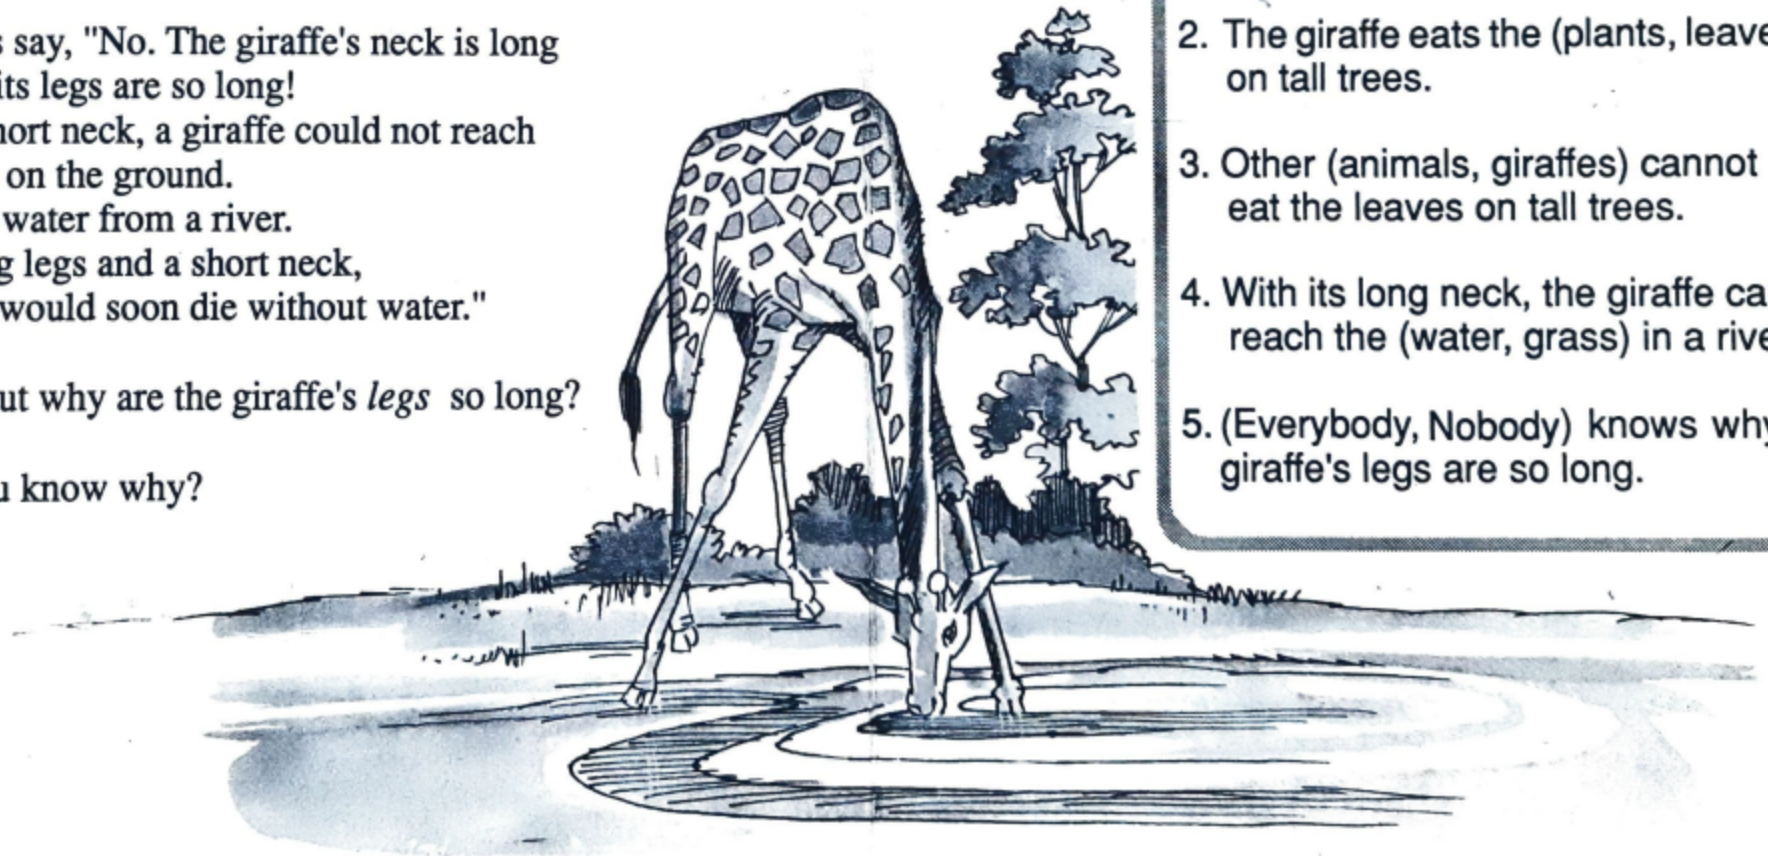

With a short neck, a giraffe could not reach the grass on the ground.

Or drink water from a river.

With long legs and a short neck, a giraffe would soon die without water."
